SAME TOPIC FOR 3 DEBATES

University Squad Will Argue Immigration Each Time.

The schedule for the debating squad presents an unusual situation. In each of the three inter-collegiate debates the Missouri team will argue the affirmative of a question involving the prohibition of immigration for five years.

The debate with the University of Kansas, March 5, has the question: Resolved that the economic condition of the United States requires that immigration be practically prohibited for a period of five years.

The last two debates will be with Oklahoma, March 12 and with Washington, March 19. The question will be: Resolved that the government should adopt a police prohibiting immigration for a period of five years.

The squad of sixteen men will be chosen Friday beginning at 1 o'clock and continuing Saturday morning until the men are selected. Briefs are to be submitted to the coach a day before the tryouts. Three judges to select the squad will be chosen from the faculty.
